

Coach's Bio – John Schildt
(Sept. 27, 2009)

Coach John Schildt is in his 3rd year at Marcus and 19th year of coaching tennis. His experience coaching and participating covers a wide range of sports from power lifting to track to tennis. His tennis coaching experience prior to Marcus High School has been at Bowie High School (2 years), El Paso High School (3), Newman Smith (1), and McKinney High School (10) where he was not only tennis coach but spent time as the strength and condition coach and MISD Secondary Health and Physical Education Coordinator.

Other tennis experience includes clinical work with Scott Nichols at El Paso Country Club and teaching classes for the City of Lewisville as well as various other local entities through Kelly Langdon.

Coach Schildt graduated from Central Islip Senior High School in Central Islip New York in 1974 and received an AA from Suffolk County Community College in 1976 and a BSE from Cortland State University in New York in 1978. John and his wife Beth who is also a coach and teacher have been married for 15 years and have 3 children Meghan 20, Ashlee 19 and Eric 15.